DIRECTORY OF ANCIENT VINTAGE COMES TO LIGHT IN RENO

One of the rare old books of early days, the second annual directory of Nevada territory, published in Virginia City in 1863 by J. Wells Kelly, is in the hands of Larry Kelly, a vell-known mining man whose headuarters are at the Riverside hotel granulated; moneyback, n Reno. It is an interesting record of the state in its youthful days. In P. M. CUNNINGHAM, Opt. D the Virginia City portion of the book al celebrity as a writer. John W. Mackay's name appears as superintendent of the Milton Silver Mining company. He was the father of Clarence Mackay, owner of the Postal C Telegraph, and was one of the group | Q of Comstock millionaires.

At the time the book was issued Virginia City was by far the largest community in Nevada, having 130 pages of names and advertisements in addition to historical and other matter devoted to it. Silver City, Dayton, Palmyra, Como, Aurora, Clifton and Austin residents also are given. Although just 50 years old. the directory is well preserved, and & to members of old pioneer families who have learned of its existence. has been an object of much interest

AN HUMBLE SUPPLICATION.

Backward, turn backward, oh Time in your flight! Give us a girl with skirts not so tight! Give us a girl o whose charms, many or few, are not exposed by too much peek-a-boo; give us a girl, no matter what age, who won't use the street for a vandeville stage; give us a girl not too sharply in view; dress her in skirts the sun can't shine through! And give us the dance of days gone by, with plenty of cloth and step not so high; put turkey trot capers and buttermilk slides, hurdy-gurdy twists and wiggle tall gildes, and other such bunny bugs all on a level, as products of hell inspired by the devil! Let us feast our eyes once more on the pure. sweet woman of yore. Yes, Time, turn backward and grant our request, for God's richest blessing, but not half undressed. - Exchange.
